

Albright College has just partnered with the online music service Ruckus Network to provide the student population with unlimited download access to a library of over 2.1 Million songs!

As an Albright College student, you can now get free, legal music downloads from Ruckus.com!

To Start Downloading Today:

Simply go to Ruckus.com, click on "Join Ruckus" and enter your (school name) email address. The registration process will only take a few minutes.

Here's just some of what you'll get from Ruckus:

- ❖ Free unlimited download access to a Library of over 2.1 Million Songs.
- ❖ Downloading albums in less than a minute.
- ❖ New music every week, Ruckus programmed playlists and album reviews.
- ❖ Exclusive artist and music label spotlights, interviews and photos.
- ❖ The ability to create and share your own playlists with your friends.
- ❖ Internet street cred'.

And don't worry -- Ruckus certifies that all downloads are 100% legal, virus-free and spy ware-free.

So what are you waiting for? Start downloading today!

Problems? Technical questions? Go to the help link on the Ruckus front page.

P.S. Make sure you let all your friends know that Ruckus is here on campus using Ruckus' Invite-a-Friend prompt. Go to >> <http://www.ruckusnetwork.com/invite>

Brought to Albright College by meisa© (Music & Entertainment Industry Student Association) and sponsored in full by Albright College SGA.