      - Chabad- also shares the same mission as Hillel
        - We recommend a meeting between the eboard of Hillel, the students interested in Chabad and Dr. Koosed
        - Perhaps they can function as a branch of Hillel?
      - Future budgetary constraints
      - Individual organizations lose credibility when they could be joining forces.
        - Example: the Ski Society and Big Adventure Domain
      - Possibilities for the future policies surrounding this issue
• ISA as a larger umbrella ➔ If each organization had a representative on the ISA Eboard they could all work together to create a more cohesive unit consisting of all of the distinct cultural groups

• They would all allocate through ISA and then the funds would be distributed via the Eboard, under the supervision of the SGA

• Grouping of the current and future organizations together by geographical region so that the Eboard remains consistent with a set member of individuals each term
